SHADOW

Book Review by Holly Hirst

Title of the book: Shadow.

Author: Michael Morpurgo.

Other books by Michael Morpurgo Butterfly Lion, War horse and Elephant in the Garden.

The characters include: the dog Shadow, Aman, Grandpa, Mum and Sergeant Brodie.

Most of them have different personalities so some make me feel scared and some make me feel warm inside.

The story is set in hot, scorching Afghanistan

Aman needs a friend and he finds this dog and he named him Shadow. Suddenly the war gets bigger so Aman and his mum have to sail to England but can Shadow come with them all the way?

It is a sad book but 5 times better than any other book I have read. My favourite part was when Aman found Shadow because I was quite surprised and scared.

The book describes what life might be like for a child in a country at war, it was scary and sad sometimes.

I learnt a lot about refugees.

I would definitely recommend this it was a brilliant book because was a very realistic.

This book is suitable for children age 7 to any age and also people who like Adventures books

In school we have a club called drama. If you are into drama you should try it. At the end of drama you do a show to show other people what you have been doing in drama . We made 2 plays ,one at the theme park and one at the zoo .The teacher allows year 3,4 ,5 and 6.If you like drama and you are in year 6 come and join us (we would make a very good play).

They have drama in the infants. So even if you like drama you're in the infants it means you can still do it .You should check it out. You do warm ups most things you can think off. A lot of people in year 4 5 and 6 go but not year 3 if you like drama and you are in year 3 give it a try. Drama club do need more people so come on and join us (you know you want to).

Special Person Page

We are delighted to present our very first special person award to ... Ella Calderbank .

During the Summer, Ella decided to try a new hair style. She thought it would be a great idea to make good use of her hair.

Therefore, Ella donated her hair to a charity called Little Princess Trust, which is a charity that provides real hair wigs for children who have lost their own hair through cancer treatment.

Ella received a certificate from the charity.

Anyone can donate their hair to the charity, information can be found from the charity's website www.littleprincesses.org.uk

Well done Ella!
